April 9, 2020

Dear Families,

The School Committee voted to eliminate the April vacation (April 21-24) at Tuesday night's meeting. The rationale for this vote was due to students beginning to be in a more consistent routine with our Distance Learning Plan and since there really is no place for families to vacation. The administrative team and the teacher's association all agreed.

However, please note that the 4 virtual school days during April vacation will count towards the end of the school year. Therefore, the last day of school will be June 22nd, the 181st day.

Finally, there will be no Distance Learning Program tomorrow due to Good Friday (Grab and Go Meal Plan will still be available). Also, there will be no Distance Learning Program on April 20th, due to Patriot's Day (Grab and Go Meal Plan will still be available).

Hoping you are all well and safe.

Sincerely,
Dr. Azar
