Dear Dighton-Rehoboth Families,

Thanks to the work of district administrators and teachers, the DRRSD Distance Learning Website is now available as a supplemental tool for students and families. Resources on the website are intended to enrich the learning of students during school closures. Please note, the website will be frequently updated and resources will be added so we encourage students and families to access the site daily. The site includes specific grade span pages to help students and families access appropriate sites intended for specific grade levels.

Please reach out to your respective building principal via email if you have questions or require support. Although our doors are closed, we are still here to help while we all navigate through this uncertain time. Please continue to monitor your email for important updates and reach out to me directly if you are unsure as to who to ask should you have a concern or a question.

Take care,
Dr. Anthony C. Azar
Superintendent of Schools
